Product Description: Our sleek new, 6 1/2ft, 15kg women's training bar has a 25mm bar shaft that is easier to grip and control that is specifically designed for functional training. Despite its smaller diameter, it has an extremely strong yield strength that provides plenty of desired "whip." The shaft has an attractive patina (copper) color which contrasts well with black painted sleeves to give it a distinctive look, while being fastened securely with dual snap rings for consistent, reliable performance.
